About The Seminar

Human Rights Day was first announced to be celebrated every year by the United Nations General Assembly on 10th of December in the year 1948. From the most basic human needs such as food, shelter, and water, all the way up to access to free and uncensored information, such has been the goals and ambitions laid out that day.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) was a shout across the world by the leading countries in the world, stating loud and clear that no matter where we live, what we believe, or how we love, we are each individually deserving of the most basic fundamentals of human needs.

This day is celebrated to improve the physical, social, cultural and spiritual well being and welfare of the vulnerable group of people globally. Some of the important reasons of why do we celebrate and objectives are:

Objectives Of The Seminar

1. To promote the awareness about human rights among the people all around the world.
2. To emphasize the endeavors of the United Nations general assembly in order to progress the overall human rights conditions.
3. To get together and celebrate in cooperation to discuss and highlight the specific issues of the human rights.
4. To encourage the vulnerable group of people like women, minorities, youth, poor, disabled person and indigenous people to take part in this event and political decision-making.
